

COMPARATIVE LAW AND ECONOMICS OF COVID19

Call for rapporteurs

Despite the fact that over 200 rapporteurs are already participating in the project, we are still looking for additional scholars. The following list includes open spots for rapporteurs that would be interested in responding to one of the following questionnaire entries related to regulatory response to the pandemic across jurisdictions.

- 1 - STATE OF EXCEPTION
- 2 - SURVEILLANCE AND COMPLIANCE
- 3 - LEGAL-FINANCIAL ARCHITECTURE
- 4 - EMPLOYEE RELIEF AND PROTECTION OF WORK
- 5 - BUSINESS RELIEF AND PROTECTION
- 6 - ALTERNATIVES

These are the specific jurisdictions for which the specific spots are open:

- US: 1, 2, and 6
- Canada: all
- Mexico: 1, 4,5
- Cameroon: 3, 4, 5 and 6
- Sierra Leone and Mali: all
- Bolivia: 1, 2, 5 and 6
- Colombia: (1), 4, 5 and 6
- Uruguay: 2, 5 and 6
- Paraguay: all
- Albania: 2 to 6
- Austria: 6
- Greece: 6
- Bosnia-Herzegovina: 3, 4, 5 and 6
- Bulgaria: 1, 2, 3, and 6
- Germany: 1
- Ireland: 1,3, 5 and 6
- Hungary: all
- The Netherlands: 4, 5 and 6
- Sweden: 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6
- United Kingdom: 1, 2, 3 and 6
- (Scotland): 2 and 6
- Russia: 1, 2, 5, and 6
- Ukraine: 3, 4, 5 and 6
- Belarus: all
- Mongolia: all
- Baltic countries: so far none
- Japan: all
- South Korea: 1, 2, 5 and 6
- China: 6
- India: completed
- Bangladesh: 1, 2 and 6
- Nepal: 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6

Pakistan: all
Malaysia: 1, 2 and 6
Singapore: all
Australia: all
New Zealand: 2, 3, 5 and 6

Also we are looking for rapporteurs from a Arab countries in general.

Please share the call with scholars, networks and institutions that might be interested in participating.

Expressions of interest can be made either by filling this form or writing directly to: fle@youngcholarsinitiative.org