Kyoto, 12 September 2024

Dear Friends and Colleagues of the AIDC/IACL,

My name is Yuko Nishitani, Professor at Kyoto University Graduate School of Law in Japan and a Titular Member of the AIDC/IACL. I am also Vice-President of the Hague Academy of International Law. It is a great pleasure and honor to recommend Prof. Bélih Elbalti (Osaka University Graduate School of Law in Japan; Tunisian national) as a new Associate Member of the AIDC/IACL.

Prof. Elbalti specializes in Private International Law and Comparative Law and has extensively researched the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments, arbitration, mediation, contracts, Japanese law, and Islamic legal systems with their interactions with Western law. He is an excellent academic and has a notable critical mind. His publications are of the highest caliber and greatly appreciated internationally. His research entails unique features and invaluable assets in comparative perspectives, given that he has an excellent command of Arabic, French, English, and Japanese.

Against this background, I am confident that Prof. Elbalti will play an essential role in the AIDC/IACL academic activities, and I look forward to working with him in the future. Thank you very much in advance for considering his candidacy.

Sincerely yours

(Yuko Nishitani)
