Re: Nomination for Associate Membership
Prof. Caroline L. DAVIDSON

Dear Gary and Members of the Executive Committee,

I have the pleasure of nominating my colleague Professor Caroline L. DAVIDSON for associate membership of the Academy. I attach her curriculum vitae and list of publications.

I have had the pleasure of knowing Professor Davidson for the last 16 years and I am thoroughly impressed by her academic record and her comparative law experience in the fields of human rights, women's rights, and international criminal law and procedure.

A Canadian citizen who graduated from Princeton and Harvard and speaks five languages, Davidson worked for four years at the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, two years in Bosnia & Herzegovina, one year in Chile, and for extended periods in Argentina, Brazil, and Colombia (Fulbright scholar), in addition to her practical experience in Canada and the United States before becoming a law professor. I do not know of many people with such a rich comparative experience.

I have no doubt that, based on this wealth of experience, her exemplary academic record, and her congenial and cooperative personality, Professor Davidson will be a true asset to the Academy. I strongly and enthusiastically support her nomination.

Sincerely

Symeon C. Symeonides
Titular member since 2000
