Statement of Support of IACL Associate Membership for A/Prof Luca
Siliquini Cinelli

As a longstanding Titular Member of the IACL, serving on a de facto National Committee for Australia (with Prof Cheryl Sanders and former Justice James Douglas), I am pleased to support Luca's application for Associate Membership of our Academy.

This mid-career scholar has been a prolific author especially in recent years, publishing comparative law articles in highly-regarded journals, book chapters and already several books, presenting interesting perspectives particularly on jurisprudence, contract law and (especially) legal education. Although from the civil law tradition in Italy, he has also researched and taught across common law or mixed jurisdictions including in Australia, Scotland and now Wales. I am confident that membership will lead to energetic engagement with Academy projects and support further large-scale comparative law initiatives for Luca.

Yours sincerely,

Luke R Nottage
