for Professor Marina Timoteo

Marina Timoteo is tenured professor at the University of Bologna of Private Comparative Law.

She is an indisputable point of reference regarding Chinese law, being one of the first who still decades ago established stable relations with Chinese Universities.

Fluent in Chinese, she lectured and has been appointed as a Visiting professor at People's University and Beijing University (within the European Union - China Higher Education Cooperation Programme) (1998), Chuo University of Tokyo (2001), China's University of Political Sciences and Law (2004-5), (2018-2024) where she currently is Visiting professor, and lectured at University of International Business and Economics (Beijing) (2019-2022) and China Normal University (Beijing) (2019).

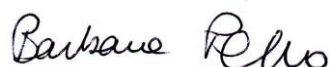

She is Coordinator of Jean Monnet module "Law and Business in China, in the framework of the Eu-China investment and trade relations: the challenges of the digitaltech age" (2023-2026) financed by the European Commission.

She is further member of the Eight Panel of Arbitrators of the Beijing Arbitration Commission/Beijing Arbitration Center.

As Coordinator, Marina Timoteo has taken part in various International Research Projects, mostly financed by the European Commission. She has published extensively as evident from her list of publications.

She has been an associate member of the Academy for more than 10 years.

For these reasons, we nominate Prof. Marina Timoteo as Titular Member of the Academy.
